A. Agenda

Updates on Spring & Summer baseball and the dugout/backstop project.

B. Open Issues and New Business

We received confirmation that we will be doing the Pumpkin Patch again next year at OHF. We discussed ways to make it more successful such as; increase advertising, possibly make the caramel apples, use of a radar gun for an activity for the older kids.

Matt would like to see if we could get a couple of iPads for the baseball team to use for recording the boys and score keeping.

Spartan Youth Baseball camp was February 1 and 2, 2014 and each day they had 37 kids attend the camp. This was a much better turn out than the previous years.

Spring Fundraiser Oranges cost $12.75 Grapefruit cost $10.75 the money raised will go directly back to the kids for them to use towards their summer baseball fees.

Fence signs – Renewal letters to go out on 2/4/14. Goal is to collect $8,000 in 2014; in 2013 we collected $5,000. Need to order new signs for Dicks Auto group, Premier (new sign need art work), Coyotes

Spring tryouts will be held on March 3 and 4, 2014. Will hold a parent meeting possibly on March 5, 2014 with a meeting immediately following for kids invited to Arizona.

Dugout Project: Packet was approved by the city 1/30/14. We now have to wait for 56 days for public notice/comments

Arizona Spring Break trip – Will be $150.00 for each kid. This will include airfare, lodging, 3 coaches rental vans,$300.00 for gas, 2 dinners, ASU game, Castle and Coasters.
